INVESTIGATION:

THIS IS A SUSPENDED CASE REPORT

The R/Det was assigned to investigate the Burglary which occurred at [REDACTED] whereas a Laptop computer was taken from the basement apartment of the victim, [REDACTED] and witnessed by the neighbor, [REDACTED]. The R/Det learned that an Offender was taken into custody and transported to the 14th District for processing.

The R/Det relocated to the 14th District and spoke with [REDACTED], the witness to the Burglary and he related the following in essence, but not verbatim:

LOG # 1050296

Related that he arrived to the Apartment building at [REDACTED] he resides in the [REDACTED] first floor rear apartment. [REDACTED] related that he was approached by an occupant of the building that wanted to remain anonymous and that person related that there was a suspicious male black in the rear of the Building. [REDACTED] related that he went to the rear yard and observed the Offender exiting the victim's basement apartment carrying a black bag, approximately the size of a gym bag. [REDACTED] related that he asked the Offender what he was doing in the victim's apartment and he replied that he was looking for his dog and quickly left the yard into the alley behind the building. [REDACTED] related that he phoned the victim and asked if someone should've been in his apartment whereas the victim related that nobody had permission to be in his apartment. [REDACTED] related that the victim came home and related that his Toshiba Laptop had been taken. [REDACTED] related that he and the victim patrolled the area and located the Offender at the corners of Hirsch and Maplewood and in possession of the black bag.

[REDACTED] related that the Offender also had a pitbull dog with him.

[REDACTED] related that he flagged down a passing Police vehicle and the Officers stopped the Offender, taking the dog from him and recovering the black bag after the Offender ran away, dropping the bag. The bag was found to contain the victim's Toshiba laptop computer. The Officers arrested the Offender and instructed the victim and himself to go to the 14th District for a further investigation.

The R/Det spoke with the victim, [REDACTED] whereas he related the following in essence, but not verbatim:

[REDACTED]
Related that he was at work when he received a call from [REDACTED] and was told that he had observed an unknown male exiting [REDACTED] basement apartment carrying a black bag and when questioned, the male quickly fled the area. [REDACTED] related that he went to his apartment and after a search, he observed that his Toshiba Laptop computer had been taken. [REDACTED] related that he and Richard searched the immediate area, in the neighborhood and [REDACTED] pointed out a male black that was standing on the corners of Maplewood and Hirsch and he was in possession of [REDACTED] bag. [REDACTED] related that THE offender also had a pitbull dog with him. The Police were flagged down and as the Police talked to the male Offender, he dropped the bag and fled on foot after one of the Officers took the dog from him. One of the Officers pursued the Offender. The bag was recovered by the Police and found to contain [REDACTED] Laptop computer. The Offender was arrested and the Officers informed [REDACTED] and himself to go to the 14th District to recover the computer.

The R/Det learned the computer to be a Toshiba Satellite Laptop computer with a 15" screen, Model#PSLD80-107071 and Serial#49641779Q. The computer was inventoried under [REDACTED] along with a copy of a Best Buy receipt produced by the victim. The computer was subsequently returned to the victim after being photographed by Beat 5853, Evidence Technician Campbell#10587. The R/Det further learned that a Dell Laptop computer, Serial#LBLP/NJX187A00 was also recovered from the black bag and was inventoried under#12390197. The owner of the Dell was not determined at time of this Report.

The R/Det advised the Offender, [REDACTED] of his Rights per Miranda at 1:12 p.m. on 11Aug2011 and asked if he understood his Rights. [REDACTED] related that he understood his Rights. The R/Det asked [REDACTED] if he wanted to waive his Rights and answer questions presented to him by the R/Det. [REDACTED] informed the R/Det that he would answer questions.

Attachment #

The R/Det asked [REDACTED] if he entered into the victim's apartment and took the laptop computer that he was found in possession of when encountered by the Police. [REDACTED] related the following in essence, but not verbatim:

[REDACTED]
Related that he was walking his dog through the alley when he saw a dog from the rear yard of a building and this dog tried to attack his pitbull dog. [REDACTED] related that he separated the dogs tried to locate the owner of the other dog by going into the rear yard hoping to find the owner. [REDACTED] related that while in the yard, he knocked on the basement door along with the other apartments, but the basement door was open, which at that time he did not enter. [REDACTED] related that he saw a laptop computer on the garbage can in the rear yard and took the computer. [REDACTED] related that the computer looked to him to be in disrepair and he did not think it worked.

The R/Det contacted the Cook County State's Attorneys Office seeking a Felony charge against [REDACTED]. Assistant State's Attorney Medina responded and began to review the facts of the Investigation as presented by the R/Det. After reviewing the facts, ASA Medina approved a Felony Charge of Residential Burglary against [REDACTED] at 2010 hours on 11Aug2011. The victim was advised of the Criminal charges, signing a Criminal Complaint against [REDACTED], and of the initial Court date.

This Investigation is Clear/Closed by Arrest and Prosecution.
Report of Detective Darrick Johnson #20717.
